

Department of Planning, Policy, and Design

Distinguished Fellows Mixer

The Department of Planning, Policy, and Design in the School of Social Ecology is pleased to announce the third class of PPD Distinguished Fellows for the 2015-2016 academic year. The program was established to connect senior planning and policy leaders to graduate students and alumni in urban planning. Join us for an opportunity to meet the fellows and learn more about this important program. A continental breakfast will be served and an RSVP is requested.
