

UCI Master of Urban and Regional Planning

Diversity in Planning Workshop

Saturday, October 13, 2018
1 - 4 pm, Social Ecology 1, Room 112

*"Successful, vibrant, happy cities arise out of the visions of many, not the powerful few."
Jane Jacobs, urbanist and activist*

Your visions are needed! Come learn about opportunities in professional planning education and careers for people from a wide range of backgrounds who have interest in serving and improving lives across diverse communities. MURP faculty, current students, and alumni will engage with attendees in interactive discussions and activities.

This workshop is being offered in conjunction with the Social Ecology Graduate Programs Preview Day. You are welcome to attend the entire day, or for the afternoon Diversity in Planning segment.

Learn more and register:

<https://uppp.soceco.uci.edu/event/grad-school-preview-murp-diversity-planning-workshop>

(Be sure to indicate MURP as your program of interest on the online registration.)

Look forward to seeing you there!

Questions? Contact Alyssa Stanford, MURP Program Outreach: amstanfo@uci.edu